Another Reporter Comes Away Weighing in with Important Information
Commodore Vanderbilt was eighty-one years old yesterday. He was born on the fourth street corner, taking his usual drive in the afternoon. A few reporters visited him in the evening, to inquire about a favorable time for selling a few thousands in the market.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the State Teachers' Association, called by the State Commissioner of Education, at the State Capitol, at Albany, N. Y., on Monday, June 10, 1919, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we believe that the very important and responsible representation of the educational interests of the State at the approaching Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia, and to this end, a definite and uniform plan of procedure should be adopted by the State Teachers' Association, and that the National Teachers' Association be requested to take the same plan of procedure, and to make the same plan of procedure a part of its program.

Resolved, That the State Teachers' Association be requested to make a plan of procedure for the Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia, and to make the same plan of procedure a part of its program.

Resolved, That the State Teachers' Association be requested to make a plan of procedure for the Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia, and to make the same plan of procedure a part of its program.
